ISB-NUS GENERAL MANAGEMENT PROGRAMME FOR ASIA

Jan 06 to 12, 2018 | Feb 26 to Mar 02, 2018

This unique General Management Programme for Asia is jointly developed by the Indian School of Business and the National University of Singapore (NUS) Business School. The programme aims to meet the challenges of senior leaders by equipping them with a new approach to handle business models and strategy in the Asian context.

About the programme

The two-phase programme will be delivered at ISB, Hyderabad, and NUS, Singapore. This multidisciplinary programme will help participants become adept at managing the interplay between business functions and excelling at managerial decision-making, a feature of the highly uncertain and competitive Asian markets. Participants will absorb skill sets that will help them take on fresh responsibilities, which include revenue and contribution, as opposed to earlier stages in their careers, where they were managing costs and operations.

Apart from classroom learning, the NUS phase will have a strong experiential learning component. It will facilitate the development of critical skills of senior management expected to take on international responsibilities.

Who should attend

This programme is designed for business managers who are between passages four and five of the leadership pipeline. Leaders who head functions and are aspiring to become strategic business unit heads are ideal candidates. The programme welcomes high-potential candidates who have been identified by their companies as future leaders ready for Asia.

What you will gain

- Learn to analyse and evaluate new opportunities offered by Asia's business environment
- Acquire new skill sets that will help you identify how to become a pan-Asia business player from a local one
- Acquire a new approach to strategy and a set of unique business models suitable for the Asian context
- Fast-paced, deliberately varied pedagogy and rich content that help executive development

About the Indian School of Business

The Indian School of Business evolved from the need for a world-class business school in Asia. Our founders—some of the best minds from the corporate and academic worlds—visualised the need for leadership in emerging Asian economies. They recognised that the rapidly changing business landscape would require young leaders with an understanding of evolving economies, as well as a global perspective. ISB is committed to its role in creating such leaders through its innovative programmes, outstanding faculty and thought leadership.

About NUS Business School

Established in 1965, National University of Singapore (NUS) Business School is known for providing management thought leadership from an Asian perspective, enabling its students and corporate partners to leverage global knowledge and Asian insights.

Dear Mr. Mohan

International Accounting Standards: IPSAS, IFRS and implementation
30 July to 10 August 2018

I am delighted to introduce PAI's range of professional development workshops for 2018.

For over 20 years PAI's mission had been to promote good governance and best practice in delivering public services. Working with over 165 countries worldwide, PAI has become a leading provider in public service management development. Through our extensive network of consultants and portfolio of over 40 professional development workshops, we offer a wide range of one and two-week workshops. Located in the heart of central London, we are able provide an excellent opportunity for senior policy makers and managers to share ideas about good practice and join a valuable international networking forum.

We invite you and your colleagues to join our workshop "International Accounting Standards: IPSAS, IFRS and implementation", which will take place from 30 July to 10 August 2018. This in-depth two-week workshop helps participants to access the benefits the International Public Accounting Standards (IPSAS) and International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) have across the world. You and your colleagues may also be interested in various other workshops on good governance, leadership and organisational change, public finance and economic development, policy and strategy, human resource management, information and communication and legal and judicial reform. Our friendly, flexible and collaborative approach will allow us to work closely with your organisation to meet any specific needs. We pride ourselves on our ability to provide high quality services and value for money.

Our booklet will give you an overview of our 2018 workshops. You can find further information, including draft programme outlines and booking information, on our website: www.public-admin.co.uk. We welcome the opportunity to interact with the relevant staff within your office to discuss further.

As a registered British Accreditation Council training provider, we will give you the information you need from us to apply for business travel visas and will help you with other preparations.

We look forward to working with you in the coming year.

Yours sincerely

Claire Cameron

International Accounting Standards:

IPSAS, IFRS and implementation

Fees	Dates
£3,960	30 July to 10 August 2018

About the workshop

International Accounting Standards are being applied across the world - International Public Sector Accounting Standards (IPSAS) geared to the public sector, or International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) for private sector and more commercially oriented organisations. Both are concerned with the introduction of a common accrual-based approach to financial reporting. The application of the Standards should assist in improving governance, transparency and accountability. This in-depth two-week workshop helps participants to access the benefits the Standards bring while achieving the required compliance.

What the workshop will cover

- How to implement the principles and objectives of International Accounting Standards
- Reaching the requirements of each of the Standards and their implications for your organisation
- Developing a strategy for introducing the Standards
- Applying the wider organisational, governance and accountability implications of the Standards
- How to achieve successful implementation with respect to the people, systems, process and project management requirements
- Ensuring that your organisation secures the improved financial and resource management that the Standards are designed to facilitate.

How participants will benefit

The workshop will enable you to:

- Understand the accounting and reporting requirements of the Standards
- Formulate plans to implement and secure the benefits of the Standards
- Understand the implications of the Standards in terms of financial information, decision-making and resource allocation
- Undertake financial and resource management roles more effectively
- Understand how appropriate application of the Standards can contribute to good corporate governance
- Improve budgetary control, monitoring and reporting
- Secure continued external investment and external aid more easily.

Managing and Monitoring Successful Projects

Fees	Dates
£3,920	25 June to 6 July 2018
£3,920	3 to 14 December 2018

About the workshop

Successful projects rely on two major disciplines: effective planning and control and systematic risk management. This workshop is designed to equip participants with the knowledge and skills to undertake these vital management tasks.

Both weeks of the workshop have distinctive sub-themes:

Week one: The complete project cycle

Week two: Practical risk management techniques

Although this is a two-week programme, it will be possible for participants to attend just one of the two weeks – please see below the detailed descriptions for each week.

What the workshop will cover

Week one of the workshop will boost your skills by equipping you with the effective strategies, practical tools and techniques to identify, develop, plan, control and implement programmes and projects which are aligned to the objectives of your organisation. You will also benefit from extensive practical hands-on experience.

Week two of the workshop covers risk management, an essential part of the overall management toolkit. Integrated risk management, planning for counter-measures, and contingency plans are vital to the control and success of major undertakings and this week will provide a sound grounding to assist in successful project delivery.

How participants will benefit

Participants will gain new skills and knowledge to successfully plan, monitor, control and manage the risks of your organisation's projects and programmes.
