(Vigilance Section)

Vigilance Awareness Week was observed in the office of the Controller General of Accounts, Ministry of Finance, Department of Expenditure between 29th October, 2012 to 3rd November, 2012.

The Vigilance Awareness Week commenced with the administration of the Pledge by Shri Jawahar Thakur, Controller General of Accounts to all officers and staff on 29.10.2012. This year, apart from the prominent display of banners in our offices located at Lok Nayak Bhawan

, Khan Market, Palika Bhawan, R.K. Puram and INGAF, JNU, Vigilance Awareness Week was observed by organizing a few in house programmes/activities. Prominent among these were a presentation on the topic “Transparency in Public Procurement” delivered by Shri Salim Haque, Additional Secretary, Central Vigilance Commission on 31.10.2012, with an interactive session. An essay completion on the topic “Use of Information Technology to bring transparency in Public Procurement” was held on 1st November, 2012, which drew an enthusiastic response. A debate on the subject “GFR procedure in Public Procurement can reduce corruption” was also held on 2nd November, 2012.

While participation by officers and staff was enthusiastic and encouraging during the Vigilance Awareness Week 2012, we must also, always keep in mind that vigilance is the responsibility of everyone in the organization and we must continue to remain true to the letter and spirit of the Pledge.
