(VIGILANCE SECTION)

Vigilance Awareness Week 2013 was observed in the office of the Controller General of Accounts, Ministry of Finance, Department of Expenditure from 28th October, 2013 to 2nd November, 2013.

The Vigilance Awareness Week commenced with the administration of the Pledge by Shri Jawahar Thakur, Controller General of Accounts to all officers and staff on 28th October, 2013. This year, apart from the prominent display of banners in our offices located at Lok Nayak Bhawan, Khan Market, Palika Bhawan, R.K. Puram and INGAF, JNU, Vigilance Awareness Week was observed by organizing a few in-house programmes/activities. Prominent among these were a presentation on the topic "Vigilance matters" delivered by Shri Rajiv Verma, Under Secretary, Central Vigilance Commission on 30th October, 2013, with an interactive session. An essay competition on the topic "Role of reasoned and speaking orders/decisions to bring about good governance in functioning of State bodies" was held on 31st October, 2013, which drew and enthusiastic response. A debate on the subject "How far technology can go to curb corruption in Government Procurement system" was also held on 1st November, 2013.

While participation by officers and staff was enthusiastic and encouraging during the vigilance Awareness Week – 2013, we must also, always keep in mind that vigilance is the responsibility of everyone in the organization and we must continue to remain true to the letter and spirit of the Pledge.
